THE REVOLT IN RUSSIA. DREAD COMING OF MAY DAY.

Developments All Point to a Crisis Very Soon.

All Quarters Appeal for Military Protection.

Trying to Stave Off Peasant Peril by Rescripts.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—Developments all point to a crisis in the present agitation among the workmen of the cities and the peasants in the country May Day. Appeals are pouring in from all quarters of Russia for military protection. St. Petersburg workmen are preparing a great demonstration. Arms and bombs in large quantities have been smuggled in. Bloodshed on a large scale is feared.

Wealthy persons who ordinarily go to villas on the islands of the Neva or to neighboring country places this year are going abroad. The government has taken few special measures to meet the situation, evidently relying on the troops and police to guard the capital. All prominent agitators are being arrested, or have already been sent back to the villages from which they originally came. The prisons are filled to overflowing.

The attitude of indifference in certain quarters of society as to the outcome of the prospective naval battle is arousing criticism. Prince Oukhtomsky, in his new paper, the Dawn, today, takes society to task for its unpatriotic, careless attitude.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—Private advice from Riga, government of Rethonia, say that the police are following their old practice of dividing the population against itself. They are trying to excite the natives against Germans, and the position of the latter is becoming so alarming that many are going abroad.

Jews in a PANIC.

From Dunaburg, government of Vitbeke, come reports that the Jews are in a state of panic over the circulation of proclamations similar to those which preceded the outbreaks at Kishineff and Gomel.

At Ekaterinoslav, three revolutionaries who were surrounded by police fought their way to liberty, killing or wounding several of the police.

A dispatch from Kars says that the employees of the Trans-Caucasian Railroad are on strike, and that 100 miles of the track has been abandoned.

On account of the condition of his health, and the fact that the evidence against him is not stronger than against hundreds of others who have not been arrested in connection with the disturbances of January 25, it is understood the government has abandoned its intention of bringing Maxim Gorky to trial.

The Press Commission has recommended the removal of the censorship from cartoons and the debates of all sessions and other legal organizations.

ECCLIASTICAL RIOT.

PUPILS DRIVE OUT PRIESTS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

TAMBOFF (Central Russia) April 14.—The pupils of the ecclesiastical seminary here have struck. When the rector and priests attempted to induce them to return to their studies the pupils drove them out and later sacked the institution. Troops were finally sent to the scene of the disturbance and many of the pupils were wounded before order was restored.

BREACH BECOMING WIDER.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14, 1:15 a.m.—A convention of mining engineers now in session here is falling into line with the recent committees of doctors, lawyers and other professional men in devoting the major portion of its attention to questions of political reform.

The breach between reformers and conservatives has now become so wide as to involve bitter attacks on newspapers supposed to especially favor either side.

TO KEEP CAUCASIA QUIET.

REFORMS TO BE PROCLAIMED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

TIFLIS, April 14.—A proclamation of Count von Vorontsoff-Dashoff, the new Governor-General of the Caucasus, was gassed today, announcing that, in accordance with the intention of Emperor Nicholas, the Governor-General will, when he assumes office, convene conferences of representatives of the towns, peasant communities and orthodox, Armenian and Mohammedan churches, with the view of connecting measures for the establishment of public security, defining the amendments necessary to the judicial procedure of the Caucasus and introducing emergency administration. The Governor-General also proposed to hasten the surveys of the crown lands available for cultivation, that they may be allotted to those in need of lands.

The proclamation adds that the Emperor has ordered a revision of the question of the confiscation of the Armenian Church property and concludes with urging the maintenance of tranquillity, so that conditions in the Caucasus may speedily be improved, in accordance with the imperial rescript of March 2.

TRYING TO STAY PEASANT PERIL.

REASONS FOR CREATING SPECIAL LAND COMMISSION.

Czar Trying to Inoculate in the People a Perception of Property Ownership, but Rescript in Matter May Have Directly the Opposite Effect.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—The imperial rescript addressed yesterday to the Minister of the Interior, Bouligand, creating a special commission under his presidency to discuss questions relating to peasant tenure of lands, is a direct recognition of the grave peril involved in the spreading peasant unrest, which threatens not only the big estates, but the imperial domains.

The instructions in the rescript to work out a system clearly marking off peasant land from the lands of the owners, "in order to inculcate in the people a perception of property ownership," amounts to an imperial refutation of the stories current among the peasants that the Emperor had decreed a new division of the land.

It is feared, however, it may have exactly the contrary effect to the one desired among the ignorant peasantry, and that shrewd agitators will be able to employ the rescript bearing upon the general subject of the increase of peasant lands as being a confirmation instead of a denial of reports, which the agitators had previously circulated about the Emperor's intention to redistribute the land.

Two methods of relief are proposed by the rescript—the purchase of additional land by the aid of a peasants' bank and the colonization of Siberia.

ENDS WITTE COMMISSION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—The creation of the new commission sounded the knell of the old Witte commission, which is simultaneously abolished. M. Witte's commission, which was a much broader character, considering all questions relating to peasant administration, created a tremendous stir two years ago, being the signal for much outspoken criticism of the present régime on the part of the semstvos, notably that of Tver, which was "revised" out of existence by the late Interior Minister Yuliev.

An immense amount of material was collected by the commission, but its work became so diffuse and it accomplished so little in the way of tangible results that its passing away has aroused no regret.

The supplanting of one commission by another, however, serves to emphasize the criticism of the Liberals in regard to the failure of reforms in the rural districts.

The government claims, however, that, as the work of the new commission is being restricted to the question of devising ways for supplying the peasants with additional land, it should speedily accomplish something.

Nevertheless, in quarters familiar with the situation among the peasants serious doubts are expressed as to whether the rescript will have as appreciable effect in allaying the agrarian agitation.

"IT COMES TOO LATE."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14, 1:15 a.m.—"Like all the acts of the autocracy, it comes too late," said a prominent nobleman who has a large estate near Moshkoff, and who considers it unsafe to live upon his property.

The active head of the new commission will be Gorenky, ex-Minister of the Interior, who is extremely well equipped for the work assigned to him. For a long time he has been in charge of the Senate section relating to peasant affairs, in which he is an expert. Gorenky was Minister of the Interior for a short time before Sipiaguine, and his administration generally was not marked by any of the harshness which characterized the tenure of the latter.

On the heads of his two successors, the doom of the terrorists.

GOOD NEWS FOR WORKMEN.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14, 1:15 a.m.—In receiving a delegation of workmen from Moscow yesterday, Finance Minister Kokovoff gave notice to the workmen of Russia that a government commission is now formulating legislation to remedy the greater part of their grievances, including state insurance against sickness, old age, death, and for shortening the hours of labor, abolishing the prohibition of strikes, and for the establishment of an industrial court in which employers and employed shall be represented.

The Minister pointed out to the delegation the impossibility of elaborating a moment legislation of such weighty and far-reaching character. He declared that the energy with which the commission is working gave it the right to demand sufficient time for the preparation and consideration of the proposed laws.

Committee Shows Emperor-King That Political Situation is Leading to Ruin.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

BUDAPEST, April 14.—The committee appointed to draw up an address to the Emperor-King setting forth the terms on which the parliamentary majority would be willing to support a new ministry, has today delivered the draft of the proposed address.

It points out the severe economic injury threatening the nation in consequence of the political situation and urges on His Majesty the speedy appointment of a ministry which can count on the support of the elected representatives of the nation, urges a reform of parliament, the extension of the franchise, reform in taxation and economic independence, after adequate preparation and authorization of the Hungarian language as well as wearing distinctive badges, by the Hungarian regiments.

In conclusion, the address begs the Emperor-King to end the unconstitutional situation and to appoint a ministry possessing the confidence of the Diet, as further delay will shake the country in the faith of its constitutional life.

DIVORCE A REFUGEE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Over the bitter protest of Miss Susan R. Anthony, the National Council of Women today adopted a resolution pledging the organization to cooperate with church and state to ascertain what are the chief causes which induce or lead up to divorce.

"I do not consider divorce an evil by any means," asserted Miss Anthony, who was on her feet before the reading of the resolution had been concluded. "It is just as much a refuge for women married to brutal men as for men married to brutal women. I will never vote for a resolution that will cut women off from designing and brutal men."

WASHINGTON. PROBLEMS OF THE RIVERS.

The President Appoints a Special Commission.

International Disputes Which Must Be Settled.

Panama Canal Labor Question
Army Officers.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The President has appointed a special commission to deal with three important questions which have arisen relative to the diversion and interference with the course of international rivers.

This commission consists of Judge Penfield, Solicitor for the State Department; Special Assistant Attorney-General M. C. Burch and Prof. F. H. Newell of the Geological Survey, and has just held its first meeting.

All the questions before the commission have formed the subject of extensive correspondence between the State Department and Mexico on the south and the Dominion of Canada, as represented by Great Britain, on the north.

On the south, there is that long-standing controversy growing out of the damming of the Rio Grande and the use of the waters of the upper river for irrigation purposes in American territory, to the injury of the Mexican farmers on the right bank of the river.

The Mexicans claim that the Rio Grande River is navigable, and consequently that this diversion of the water is in violation of international law.

To the westward, the commission is to deal with the Colorado River, where the upper waters in American territory also are about to be diverted, to the loss of the Mexican ranchers in Lower California.

On the north, the Milk River projects a dam in the United States, this river flows into Canada and back again into Montana. The Canadians have been making large use of the waters on their side, which has led to a project by the people of Montana, to cut out the entire bend in the river on the Canadian side by a canal, the effect of which would be to completely deprive the Mexicans of water.

The commission will have to deal with some entirely new questions of international law relative to riparian rights.

As the result of the conference with Secretary Taft it was decided that as projects such as the international dam on the Colorado River and the reclamation dam on the Colorado River had been authorized by Congress, there was nothing to do but to proceed with the work, leaving the broader question of international riparian rights to be treated diplomatically.

PANAMA CANAL COMMISSION.

REGULATIONS FOR LABOR.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Executive Committee of the Panama Canal Commission, Messrs. Shont, Magoon and Wallace, today decided to draw up specifications to govern the employment of labor on the canal.

A decision from Atty-Gen. Moody as to the application of the hour day to the work is expected in a few days, and will govern that problem in the specifications.

Permitting will have to be obtained from the Japanese government before the 2000 laborers from that country can be secured. The specifications to be drawn up will cover sanitary conditions, etc., will have to be submitted to that government before this permission is obtained.

The committee today received the Japanese Consul at San Francisco, together with a noted Japanese physician, who were presented by the law counselors of the Japanese legation. The Consul-General and the physicians leave New York today for Panama, where they go to make an investigation of sanitary and political conditions, their report to be made to the Japanese government.

C. C. Rosemea, Chargé d'Affaires of the Panama legation, called at the War Department today and presented the cordial congratulations of his government to Gov. Magoon upon his appointment as governor of the canal zone.

difficulty and that none of them will be laid off. The strikers are being paid in full. The strikers are being paid in full. The strikers are being paid in full.

LA JUNTA (Cal.) April 14.—[Exclusive dispatch.] The local Santa Fe boilermakers' union, at 3 o'clock this morning, thirty helpers joined the strike, making sixty men on strike.

The strikers say they quit because the company has been employing non-union workmen in the shops. It is claimed that all boilermakers along the Santa Fe system are going to quit work.

William Schardt, member of the national executive committee of the brotherhood, has started for Chicago to await instructions for Huber.

The trouble is now between the new union and the Master Carpenters' Association. There is a radical and a conservative element in the latter, the former being in favor of standing by the new union and the latter of retaining the charter offered by the brotherhood and the latter of bringing pressure on the union to accept the charter. Further efforts are now being made to end the trouble here so that its spread may be prevented.

MEN MAKE LEAP FOR LIFE.

Fifty Persons Narrowly Escape Death
or Injury in Fire in New York
Tenement District.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
NEW YORK, April 14.—Five persons were badly hurt, fifty others narrowly escaped death or injury, and hundreds were driven from adjoining tenement houses in a fire early today, that entirely destroyed the seven-story sweatshop building at 127-131 Hester street and extended to and damaged several other near-by buildings. When the fire started, the flames lit up the whole of the lower part of the city and East River, with a glare that could be seen for miles. The damage is estimated at close upon $100,000.

There were no children and only one woman, the wife of the janitor, in the place. About fifty men—some employed watchmen for the various clothing factories and the others friends of the watchmen, whom they permitted to sleep there—were in the building. More than half of these men had to jump to the roofs of adjoining buildings, some across the chimney of an eight-foot alleyway, to save their lives. All the injured were hurt in making the leap for life.

Before the fire was controlled it spread to the two six-story tenements adjoining and the fronts of the four big tenements and a school building on the south side of the street.

VICTORY FOR NAN PATTERSON.

Indictment Charging Her With Conspiracy Wrongfully to Get Young's Money Dismissed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
NEW YORK, April 14.—The indictment charging Nan Patterson with conspiracy, with J. Morgan Smith and Mrs. Smith, wrongfully to obtain money from "Caesar" Young, was dismissed in the Court of General Sessions today, at the request of Assistant District Attorney Rand. Counsel for the Smiths demurred to the indictment against the Smiths and declared that the facts alleged against them did not constitute a crime. The court reserved decision. Counsel for the Smiths endeavored to secure the return of property taken from the Smiths, but failed.

Rand told the court that a mistake had been made in drawing up the indictment against Miss Patterson, and that it tended to prejudice her position in the capital case. In asking for the dismissal of the indictment against her, he reserved the right to re-submit. The effect of the action will be to prevent her counsel from getting at the grand jury minutes, which might have aided in her defense. Smith and his wife, who were excused from pleading, were remanded to the Tomb, as was also Miss Patterson.

JAIL YEARS FOR MRS. NATION.

WICHITA (Kan.) April 14.—In the District Court today, Carrie Nation, widow of the late Dr. J. W. Nation, who were found guilty of destroying property, and sentenced by Judge Wilson to the state prison for a term of four months in jail; Mrs. Micheney, two months and a fine of $150, and Mrs. Willert, one month and a fine of $100. Sentence was suspended pending good behavior. The offense was committed September 30 last, when the three women broke the windows of a wholesale liquor store.

EL PASO TITLES QUIETED.

EL PASO (Tex.) April 14.—The United States Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the Federal Court for the Western District of Texas in the case of W. W. Warder against the city of El Paso. Warder claimed half the city under the old Spanish grant and alleged that the land really belonged to Mexico, but that the flood waters of the Rio Grande River had carried it across the border and into United States territory. The decision of the Federal Court in effect was that inasmuch as the United States was exercising jurisdiction through its customs houses, the land was in the United States, and this decision is now affirmed. It quieted a title to almost half the property in the city.

IN BEHALF OF DARLING.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Strong representations in behalf of Joseph P.
Darling, who for a month has been imprisoned in the Guatemala jail, were made to the State Department by friends from this city. Darling is a New York lawyer. He is said to be of a roving, globe-trotting disposition.
When he left this city was with the stated intention of looking after certain concessions in Guatemala. Letters to several friends have just arrived and his case will at once be placed before Assistant Secretary of State Loomis by State's Attorney, Mayor.

ANTI-MUTUALIZATION SUIT IS INTERRUPTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
NEW YORK, April 14.—A. de Navarro, the estate of E. W. Lambert, and Malcolm McArthur, all of whom hold stock in the Equitable Life Assurance Society, were granted leave to intervene in the action brought against the society by Franklin B.
Lord, by Justice Maddox, in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn, today. The suit was brought by Lord to enjoin
the plan of mutualization proposed by directors of the society.

The court was made to Justice
Blanchard in the New York State Supreme Court today that the Equitable Life Assurance Society has failed to distribute its surplus as provided by its charter; that the surplus has been illegally used, and that the mutualization of the company under the plan adopted by the directors will do injustice to the policy holders.

The court asked to issue an order restraining State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks from taking further proceedings toward the mutualization of the society. The action was taken by A. E. Woodruff of this city in behalf of Herbert G. Tuill of Philadelphia, and other policy holders in the Equitable society. Woodruff said the suit against the society is to determine whether or not the policy holders have any right to the society's surplus, and to determine the market value of the stock.

Superintendent Hendricks was asked
in the complaint to show cause, April 15, why he should not be enjoined
from further action toward mutualization of the society.

RESTITUTION BEGUN.

NEW YORK, April 14.—[Exclusive dispatch.] The restitution of huge sums illegally made by the directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, at the expense of the policy holders, has begun. James Hasen Hyde, vice-president of the Equitable, who has been charged with misuse of its funds, has made restitution to the treasury of the society to the extent of $135,000.

While this is a large sum, it is said to be only a drop in the bucket compared with the total profits which certain directors of the Equitable. It is alleged, however, that at the expense of policy holders. Developments today indicate that $10,000,000 is a very conservative estimate of the actual amount.

Of the $135,000 refunded to the Equitable society, $12,000 represented a share of the cost of the now famous linnet given by Hyde and Senator Depew to Ambassador Cambon. It could not be learned whether Senator Depew has as yet refunded to the Equitable his reputed share of cost of the Cambon dinner.

The balance of $123,000 restored to the policy holders by Hyde, or $122,000, represents Hyde's share of profits on the two syndicate underwritings by which he and other directors of the Equitable unloaded securities on the society of which they are all officers.

There were ten directors besides Hyde in each of these syndicates. If each of the eleven made $122,000, as did Hyde, out of the syndicate operations, the total sum due the policy holders is $13,420,000 on these two transactions
alone.

Justice Blanchard, being a policy holder in the Equitable society, declined to entertain the application of Lawyer Woodruff, and referred the matter to Justice Scott, who issued an order to Superintendent Hendricks to show cause, April 15, why he should not be enjoined from aiding in the mutualization of the Equitable Society.

BEEF PRICES JUMP ON BALTIMORE CUTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
BALTIMORE (Md.) April 14.—Retail meat dealers in this city have advanced the price of beef on most cuts about 2 cents a pound, due to the continued advance in the wholesale price. On the best grades, the outside figures show a jump of from 3 to 5 cents a pound.

INVESTIGATION IN TEXAS.

AUSTIN (Tex.) April 14.—The legislative committee appointed to investigate the methods of the so-called "beef trust" and its operations in Texas made a report today, and stated in substance that while they had made some inquiry, there had not developed evidence of a specific violation of the anti-trust law on which they could recommend the institution of civil or criminal proceedings against any particular person or corporation. The report was adopted.

DIAMONDS VS. DANIEL CUPID.
And It's All Off With Dan and "Alias Walls."
Beauteous Miss Mugnemi Takes the Stand.
Wherefore He of the Extra Name is Jailed.

"I wanted to get even with the other woman who was trying to poison Miss Mugnemi's mind against me; that is why I kept the diamond rings so long," explained George Murphy, alias George Walls, remittance man of Kansas City, when he faced Justice Chambers yesterday during a preliminary examination on a charge of felony embezzlement.

Pretty Miss Louise Mugnemi, 18 years old, dark haired, with Castilian and Italian blood surging beneath her flushed cheeks, had just told the court how she had entrusted three valuable rings to Murphy's care, because Murphy said he would have them cleaned and returned to her in a few days; how she had waited for the jewels nearly eight months; how Murphy had betrayed her confidence; and how she finally recovered the gems through the agency of the police.

Joe Mugnemi, a Broadway tobacco-candy store, had caused Dan Cupid to take a back seat long ago. Even Mrs. Whitley had deserted him, and with no mercy shining from the lustrous eyes of the fair prosecutrix, Murphy's chances for freedom seemed slim indeed.

Justice Chambers held Murphy to answer, fixing bail at $1500. He's in jail.

BILLIONAIRE BARON COMES.
Scion of Rothschild Family on Maiden Visit.
Been on Hunting Trip With Brother in Mexico.
Affable Valet Affords Little Light to Callers.

Baron Alphonse Rothschild of Vienna, Austria, whose father, Baron Albert Rothschild, is the head of the world's richest banking house, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday from Mexico. The Baron is on his first trip to America. He has been in Mexico with a brother, Louis, who returned to the East from El Paso.

The wealthy young Austrian, who speaks English, German, Italian and French fluently, has brought with him a valet whose principal duty seems to be to meet callers and answer questions.

An able servant is the valet, whose name is Lichtenegger. He has a winning smile and the side whiskers and general appearance of the lackey in the play who says: "The carriage awaits, me Lud."

The valet has a large variety of shrugs with which he answers questions. He speaks only German, but he shrugs in several languages, according to the infections of the questioner's voice.

When the Baron and his valet arrived in Los Angeles yesterday with several trunks and numerous pieces of hand baggage they went at once to the Lankenham and remained in the hotel all day.

Both travelers were well-browned from their outdoor life in sunny Mexico.

The brothers Rothschild left their home in Vienna, said the Baron, in visiting here, last November, going directly to New York and remaining there several weeks.

From there they went south, stopping at New Orleans and then on to the City of Mexico, visiting numerous resorts within reach of the capital.

"We were especially impressed with the City of Mexico," said the Baron; "with its magnificent palaces, so different from the prevailing architecture with which we had become familiar in New York and other American cities."

"The city itself is a beautiful place, picturesque far beyond our expectations," said the Baron, "and the streets are clean and adequately polished."

"We had the pleasure while there of meeting President Diaz, and his personality impressed itself upon us as most potent and attractive."

The titled visitor, it is expected, will remain several days in Los Angeles, visiting the surrounding sections and then proceeding north. He expects to join his brother in New York in about a month, and they expect to sail for home in June.

Just before parting at El Paso, the brothers spent some time in hunting in the vicinity of Lake Chapala. They tarried for a time, too, at Guadalajara and Guanajuato.

LUMMIS LOSES HIS VENERABLE FATHER.
A WIRE yesterday, brought to Charles F. Lummis the sad news of the death of his father, Henry Lummis, D.D., one of the oldest and best-known educators in the United States, and senior professor at Lawrence University, Appleton, Wis. The news was not wholly unexpected, as during this winter Dr. Lummis had suffered a severe attack of cardiac asthma—the first break in a magnificent constitution which had carried him through more than sixty years of active educational work. His pupils are scattered all over the world, and there are many in California—all with the fondest recollections of one who was so much more to them than a mere teacher. Dr. Lummis spent a summer in this city some ten years ago with his eldest son, and many acquaintances of that time remember the white-haired, eagle-eyed, alert-minded man whose heart was as rare as his head.

Henry Lummis was born May 25, 1825, in New Jersey. On his mother's side he was descended from John Paul Jones, the greatest naval hero of the American Revolution. His grandfather, William Lummis, was in Washington's army; and many of the immediate family on the paternal side were of that iron band of circuit riders who, by hard work and by teaching, Dr. Lummis graduated from Wesleyan University, Middletown, Ct., in the class of 1855, and took his A.M. degree. Rev. William States of Pasadena was a college mate. Soon after, he became a professor at the Wesleyan University, Yt., and afterward principal of the Lynn (Mass.) High School. He was married in Bristol, N. H., May 6, 1858, to Harriet Walcott, of Lynn, who has been his pupil at Newbury and an associate teacher at the Lynn High School. Their home in Lynn was in the famous Gen. Lander house, on Ocean street, where the oldest son was born, March 1, 1858. The girl wife died in 1881, leaving a beautiful daughter. Shortly afterward, Dr. Lummis became principal of the New Hampshire Congregational Seminary and Female College at what is now Tilton, remaining there for about five years. Rev. John Gowan and wife of this city were among his pupils there some forty years ago. Thence he went as professor to Lassel Seminary at Auburndale, Mass. (now under the leadership of Prof. C. C. Bragdon of Pasadena,) and remained there about five years. This professorship he resigned to enter the New England Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and held successive pulpits in almost every case for the full term of three years—at Natick, Boston Highlands, Ashland, Monson, Watertown, Stoneham and Leominster, Mass. From the latter charge, eighteen years ago, he went to Lawrence University at Appleton, Wis., as professor of Latin and Greek. During the long term since then, and until the last few months, he practically never missed a recitation. When the young professors broke down under their work he took their classes on top of his own; and still had vigor to preach occasionally on call. A man of iron will and unflinching courage, he was equally distinguished by utter unselfishness and by a gentility almost unparalleled. The feeling of his students and his parishioners toward him was one almost of idolatry. By subscription of the alumni of Lawrence University, of which he had become senior professor, a life-sized portrait of him is being painted for the university library.

Dr. Lummis leaves a widow (Jana Brewster Lummis) and six children—Charles F. Lummis of this city, Louise Elms Lummis, now visiting her brother here; Harriet Lummis, editor of the Young People's Weekly in Chicago; Katherine Lummis of the Milwaukee High School, Mrs. Gertrude Stehn, Chicago, and Laura Lummis, now in Stanford University taking a post-graduate course. Another son, Harry B. Lummis, died in this city about four years ago.

For a few weeks preceding his death—which came suddenly and peacefully on Thursday evening—Dr. Lummis had been unable to go to the university; but to the very last his classes came to him at his home. He was one of the foremost linguists in America, and probably at his death the senior Greek and Latin professor in this country, as well as perhaps the most critical student of Hebrew. He was also an extraordinary master of the mathematical sciences and often taught them.

IMPERIAL IS DETOTEMIZED.
Bride of Six Months Married Sick Over Strange Disappearance of Railroad Man.
Harry Compton, until recently an employe of the passenger department of the Santa Fe Railway, has been missing from home since March 15, and his wife fears he has been murdered for his money.
In her home at No. 930 South Broadway, Mrs. Compton, a bride of six months, has been waiting now nearly four weeks for some word of him. Dreading notoriety which the publication of her trouble would bring, she has refrained from reporting the case to the authorities, but through the various fraternities of which her husband was a member, particularly the Order of Trainers, she has been doing what she could to solve the mystery.

She is almost prostrated from worry, and has denied herself to all callers save those who had been associated with her husband and are assisting in the search. She could not be seen last night, pleading that she had retired and was too ill to talk about the matter. She much preferred that the publication of her trouble would bring, she has refrained from reporting the case to the authorities, but through the various fraternities of which her husband was a member, particularly the Order of Trainers, she has been doing what she could to solve the mystery.

Six months ago, Mr. and Mrs. Compton married in Michigan, and Compton, who at that time was an employe of the Santa Fe, brought his bride to Los Angeles. While he was making his runs between this city and Uniontown, he fell in with men who were interested in oil fields in New Mexico. They induced him to make a small investment, and soon afterward the report got abroad that Compton had "struck it rich." Inasmuch as no money has been made in the new oil fields of that region, the report was palpably false. At any rate, Compton left the Santa Fe, and gave out that he meant to devote his time to "developing his oil interests."

March 15, he left his home, in excellent health and spirits. If there had been any misunderstanding between him and his wife, those who are well acquainted with both claim to know nothing about it. From that time his wife has received no word from him. For a time she supposed he had gone to New Mexico. After two weeks she became alarmed, and notified railroad men whom she knew had associated with her husband; and they, with members of secret organizations to which he belonged, have been conducting a search for him for more than a week.

It is learned that Compton has been seen since he disappeared, but where and by whom his wife does not know. She has come to the conclusion that her husband is in some foul play, and this conclusion Compton's friends do not concur, though they advance no other theory.

Last night at San Bernardino general orders were issued to Santa Fe trainmen to assist in the search and to report to headquarters anything they may discover. It is the intention of Compton's friends to report the matter to the authorities of the various counties in this part of the State today, and if need be, offer a reward.

MYSTERY IN PLAN TO WED.
Man Giving Name of H. E. Huntington Gets License at San Bernardino.
Under the cloak of secrecy, a man who gave his name as H. E. Huntington of San Francisco, obtained a marriage license in San Bernardino Thursday. He asked the clerk to keep the matter quiet and the record was erased.

Late in the afternoon, a woman registered at the Stewart Hotel in that city as Mrs. H. E. Huntington of Los Angeles. She remained until yesterday afternoon, when the fact of the suppressed license became known.

There seemed a disposition on all sides to shroud the movements of the pair in mystery.

When the woman was seen at the hotel, she excused herself from making a statement concerning her visit in San Bernardino. Then she directed the hotel clerk to have her hand baggage carried to the railroad station.

Cutting short the interview, she hurried from the hotel, saying she was obliged to go to the Court House. There a woman answering her description was engaged for some time in conference with Assistant District Attorney Willis, who denied that his visitor was Mrs. Huntington.

Howard E. Huntington, general manager of the Los Angeles Railway Company, is declared by his friends to have remained closely in Los Angeles for the past few days. They say he certainly was not in San Bernardino on Wednesday or Thursday. He left last evening on a business trip to San Francisco.

TRouble OVER A DOG.
The killing of a pet dog by Patrolman Glenn may bring the officer before the Board of Police Commissioners, who he resides on Essex street, shot and killed a small canine owned by ex-Capt. Roberts of the Police Department. The policeman claimed that the dog remained in his yard nearly all of the time and he feared it might bite his children. Capt. Roberts was hoping mad when he heard of Glenn's act, and yesterday the retired officer made a detailed report to Capt. Aubie.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.
The Board of Public Works yesterday recommended the acceptance of D. F. Donegan's bid for planting shade trees along Sunset boulevard.

At the request of the City Engineer the Board of Public Works yesterday afternoon took under advisement a petition for a tunnel on Court street extending from Broadway to Figueroa street.

A curious story of a woman's condition disposition was told to Judge Smith yesterday by Mrs. A. Isidora Bock, upon her application for a divorce.

There is trouble over the guardianship of ten-year-old Benjamin F. Goodrich, and the whole matter is to be thrashed out before Judge Wilbur.

BLACK ACACIA AND LIVE OAK.

HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT FOR SUNSET BOULEVARD.

Initial Steps Taken for Securing of Chain of Tree-lined Avenues Connecting City Parks—Contractor Agrees to Plant Trees and Care for Them for Three Years.

Sunset boulevard is to be the first thoroughfare in the city set to shade trees of a uniform age and species.

Recommendation was yesterday made to the Council by the Board of Public Works that a contract be awarded to D. F. Donegan for planting the State tree-planting act.

The trees are to be set fifty feet apart, and are to be black acacia and live oaks. The contract price is $3.50 each, the contractor agreeing to care for the trees for three years.

Now that ground is to be broken for the improvement of streets under the State district plan, petitions will probably be presented to the Council within the next few weeks for similar improvements on a number of other streets.

It is proposed to select a chain of streets connecting the city parks, and to improve them all by planting shade trees under the district plan.

The beauty of this plan is that it assures the planting of trees of the same age and species for the entire length of each street included in the district. The cost of the improvement is assessed against the abutting property, and in this way, non-residents can be compelled to contribute toward beautifying streets on which they own property.

Under the provisions of the State district act, a person taking a contract to supply the trees must not only set them in the ground, but must care for them for three years. The State law provides that not more than half the contract price shall be paid at the completion of the work; the remaining half to be paid in installments over a period of six months from the date of the completion of the work and the other three years from that date.

All that is necessary for the residents on any thoroughfare to do in such a case is to present a petition to the Council that the street between specified points shall be planted to trees under the provisions of the act. If a majority of the property owners on the street do not protest against the work the Council will secure bids and let a contract.

The price asked for planting Sunset boulevard is probably considerably higher than that which will prevail after the contractors auction themselves to bidding under the act.

Proponents of the city beautiful are waxing optimistic over the opportunities for converting bare and brown streets into tree-lined, flower-begirt boulevards. They say that when the property owners along resident streets once realize the possibilities of the district plan, Los Angeles will have the handsomest residential streets of any city in the world.

LOOKS LIKE A BLUFF.
FIGUEROA FRANCHISE.

Property owners on Figueroa street, south of Jefferson, appear to have suddenly lost all interest in their proposed street railway. It now looks as though they made that application partly to give their neighbors farther north a few sleepless nights.

When the application for the sale of the franchise came up before the Board of Public Works yesterday it was to walk in alone. Not one of the hundred signers of the petition was there to guide its wandering footsteps.

Lying in ambush in one corner of the committee-room were two attorneys, waiting for a chance to use the sandbag on the intruder. But the Board of Public Works was charitable. Chairman Kern instructed Committee Clerk Goodwin to lead the applicant away and bring it back two weeks hence.

Members of the Figueroa-street Improvement Association now assert that the property owners on the south end of that thoroughfare know full well that they cannot get street-car tracks built on Figueroa street north of Jefferson. They say that the application was only a part of a real estate scheme.

Sentiment in the Council has apparently crystallized against offering for sale an electric railway franchise on Figueroa street between Washington and Jefferson streets.

COURT-STREET TUNNEL.
COMMITTEE MISCELLANY.

The Board of Public Works yesterday afternoon took under consideration a petition from numerous property owners asking that an assessment district be established for boring a tunnel through Court street from Broadway to Figueroa street.

When the application was presented, Councilman Blanchard suggested that if another tunnel is to pierce the range of hills west of Broadway, the most suitable location would be on West Second street.

City Engineer Stafford asked that the petition be granted, and the interested property owners have themselves established an assessment district and presented a majority petition. The City Engineer does not look with favor on the petition, for the reason that to grant it would mean several weeks' work in his office, making an estimate of expense and drawing plans, with an excellent prospect that after the work should be completed the proposed improvement would be protested out of the Council.

Lawrence Holmes protested to the board against the construction of a sidewalk on the north side of Third-street tunnel. He said that many who petitioned for the sidewalk have since come to him and asked that he assist them in getting the improvement abandoned.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.
HUSBAND GONE WITH MONEY.

BRIDE ROBBED AND DESERTED IN THIRTEEN DAYS.

Mrs. Bock Tells Sad Story to the Court and Gets Interlocutory Decree of Divorce—Wedding in San Diego and Honeymoon Brought Only Sorrow to Her.

The story of a get-rich-quick scheme was poured into the sympathetic ear of Judge Smith yesterday.

Mrs. Anna Isidora Bock was a sorrowful-looking woman as she related her troubles, and at one time her voice quivered as she told of her long acquaintance with her husband, and the honeymoon that was simultaneous with his desertion.

In 1901, one John Flood persuaded her to marry him. She was quiet and reserved, and he from "ole Virginny," and full of life and energy. She had known him about three years, and thought she really understood the man, and by all accounts she was right.

At the time she was entrusting her happiness—but she didn't. December 18, the marriage took place at San Diego, and what was supposed to be a honeymoon was a series of ups and downs, and making side trips over the Mexican line, the newlyweds' couple were happy at least the bride was. Then Flood continued outlying to his wife the plans he had begun during the courtship days. He was going to build fine homes at Santa Barbara. One day he told his wife that upon making his calculations he found he would be some $100,000 short of money to carry their mutual plans to completion. She easily understood how much he might be short, but she so-and-so handed him $50,000, about all she had in the world. They returned to Los Angeles, and then Flood, after seeing his wife settled in rooms, asked her good-bye, and went to Santa Barbara. He was to return in a few days, and as so many were to see him go, looked forward to the time of his return, and refused to be cast down.

But Flood never went to Santa Barbara, and nobody has been able to find what became of him. He departed December 31, 1902, and the wife, almost penniless, she applied to the police, but they could not find the runaway, nor have they learned what became of the $50,000.

Mrs. Flood has done a little detective work, but she has not been able to find him. She has a small amount of money, but she has not been able to find him. She has a small amount of money, but she has not been able to find him.

An interlocutory decree of divorce was granted. Judge Smith said that he was not going to grant a divorce until he had heard from the husband. He said that he was not going to grant a divorce until he had heard from the husband.

think that they hadn't such a snap as they had thought. Yawning creases began to appear in the walls of the rooms, and along the walls of the corridors. Then the woodwork began to warp. To cap the climax the beautiful tinting of the walls in the numerous rooms and outside corridors changed to hideous green.

Mrs. Dussault thought that her rooms looked a wreck and she went to her husband, asking him to get things up for her. But she says he had heartily refused, and then she determined to have what she thought her rights. She began suit to recover $5000 as damages, and also asks the court to compel Mr. Vogel to take the stinks out of the woodwork, and to make a kaleidoscope and fade-away appearance and live up to his guarantee that everything is in good and first rate condition.

THE GOODRICH ESTATE.
GUARDIANSHIP CONTENT.

There is a strong probability that difficulty may arise over the guardianship of Benjamin F. Goodrich, a ten-year-old boy who has an estate of $30,000 coming to him when he is of age.

At the present time Mrs. Mayne E. Goodrich-Porter is the guardian of her son's person and estate. She has appointed several years ago, in 1900, when she came to this city from Michigan to make her home here after the death of her husband, the late George Goodrich, at 1234 Westlake avenue, and recently Attorney George D. Blake had almost appointed guardian and trustee for the boy for the reason that Mrs. Goodrich has never filed any report or account.

Attorney Blake asked the court to remove Mrs. Goodrich-Porter, and she came back to him through her lawyer by all accounts of the boy, never being known that he had been appointed as guardian ad litem, and that notice was served upon her.

That answer raises several issues which Judge Wilbur could not take up yesterday, and the case went over. In the meantime Rolfe E. Goodrich, a half brother of the minor, wants to be appointed guardian of his brother's estate, leaving Mrs. Goodrich-Porter merely as guardian of the person. Mr. Goodrich is a man of standing in this community, and he is a business man of good repute.

The present guardian has failed to make the annual reports to the court that are required, but Mrs. Goodrich-Porter is not a business woman, and by all accounts, she is not a business woman. She is a woman of good character, and she is a woman of good character.

Mrs. Goodrich-Porter makes some what indignant response to Mr. Blake's charges. She says that she is neither a member nor a friend of the family. She says that she is neither a member nor a friend of the family. She says that she is neither a member nor a friend of the family.

THE INTERIOR COURTS.
YELLOW DOG; BROKEN JAW.

MANGY CANINE RESPONSIBLE FOR A BIG ROW.

Mrs. Mills Suffered Because She Thought a Dog Had Been Mistreated; Then She Suffered More on Account of a Fractured Jawbone—All Dog Trial.

A woman with a fractured jawbone; a would-be witness of the mature age of seven; a mangy yellow dog; twelve jurors; five attorneys; and a more witnesses kept Justice Rose busy in a battery case yesterday.

"Exhibit A"—the yellow pup, the cause of all the trouble—was not in evidence. All of the big friends were absent, however, and the matter in which they fought over the reputation of that dog kept the court room in a titter at times.

Often the main cause of action was overlooked. As the mangy dog, Members of three households had kind words for the dog. Then a whole family rose up and praised the dog. Two factions were fighting each other, but all eyes were turned to the dog.

In words of eulogy whenever that canine was spoken of. The dog was on trial charged with having used force and violence upon the person of Mrs. Kate Mills of No. 855 Court Street, who is a widow.

Mrs. Mills, was the complaining witness. Miss Mills claimed that Le had been violently thrown her mother from the front porch of her residence March 28 last, and that Mrs. Mills sustained a fracture of the jawbone as a result of the fall.

Le was a small, black and white dog, owned by Frederickson and Attorney E. L. Hutchinson appeared for the prosecution. Attorneys Woodruff and Heathley represented the defense.

Another lawyer dubbed in occasionally. The mangy dog was not represented in person or by attorney, but he lacked not champions.

STORY OF A BANK'S FOLLY.

The Fake Recommendation for Cashier Hays.

Vice-President in Tilt With Attorney Chapman.

Bank Examiner Subjected to a Few Thrusts.

Yesterday was the thirteenth day of the Hays trial.

The end is not in sight yet. It will take the greater part of next week to complete the testimony for the prosecution.

Tom Hays found it a hoodoo in thirteen days.

Yesterday they told the family secrets of the bank—told of the scenes that went on when Hays was ceremoniously turned out of the bank with the gold-brick "resolution" endorsing him and designed to fool the public—declined to be fooled.

It was a source of some cynical amusement to hear these bank officials turning themselves inside out, disgorging their secrets.

It appears that the briny tears of Tom Hays influenced the tender-hearted bankers to pass those fake resolutions commending the honesty and character of the man they were turning out for his complicity in the Salt Lake land frauds.

When they told him he would have to resign, Hays did not just say so and said that it was no way to treat a bank cashier.

Dr. E. R. Howe, the vice-president of "decident," told about it on the witness stand.

THE DOCTOR'S TILT.
He had a sharp tilt with Attorney Chapman, whose specialty is a dry sarcasm, and who on this occasion got about as good as he sent.

Dr. Howe said that after the Salt Lake scandal, he went to the bank and called Hays into the directors' room.

"I have come," he said abruptly, "to speak with you regarding your resignation."

Hays was alarmed and said he would not resign. He said that it was the first time he ever heard of a bank cashier who was not upheld by the directors in "trouble."

He finally was moved to tears and said he would resign if the directors would pass the now-famous resolutions commending him.

Witness told Hays he thought it could be arranged; they talked over the terms that the resolutions should contain. Afterward an attorney drew them up and the bank kept a copy.

When J. Ross Clark and T. E. Gibson stockholders in your bank," asked Mr. Chapman as the witness was passed over to him for cross-examination.

"We object," interposed Mr. Valentine. Mr. Chapman explained to the court that he proposed to show that Gibson and Clark went to the bank and demanded that the resolutions be passed. He said that the defense would also show that Mrs. Dism had heavy deposits in the bank for the Salt Lake Company.

the whole bank would take care of itself, wouldn't it?"

A POINTED QUESTION.
"Then what's the good of him?" asked the attorney bluntly. "He said, 'The rules of the department,' he said, in a chilly voice, 'are based on forty years' experience; they prescribe what the examiners are to do, but they also instruct the examiner to generally inquire into the conditions of the bank, don't they?'"

"Yes—if it is possible." "Isn't it always possible?" "It would be if you were to stay around along enough."

Then he got a hot one from Chapman. "Well, after you went down there on this little excursion," he said, witheringly, "what did you do?"

Mr. Wilson, who was a matter of fact, is a man of sterling character and high reputation as a bank examiner, explained the details of his examination of the bank.

He first went down to Riverside in September, 1903.

He was at the hotel, and the latter asked him, jokingly, if he had come down to investigate his bank. After luncheon they went down to the bank.

There he counted the cash personally. "How do you do this?" said Mr. Valentine.

"We look to see if the trays are deep; we count the gold in piles of twenty, and the silver, etc."

"What do you mean by deep?" Mr. Wilson explained then a trick of the bank trade. He said that, in some banks, to make a show of wealth, they have trays that slant up at the back, so that they look to be full of gold—and are not.

He said the trays in the Orange Groves Bank were the genuine article.

He said he compared the cash with the amount in the general ledger, and found it correct within 10 cents. Hays said that he did not know how to fill in the schedules, and Wilson showed him how, reading out the amounts to him from the weekly statement. He described his checking up of the overdrafts—described his whole work.

He then told of coming back to the bank after the discovery of the Hays defalcations. He first went to ascertain whether the bank was in condition to be allowed to go on in business. He then took charge of the affairs of the bank as receiver, and hunted down the "discrepancies" left by Hays.

The case will be resumed Monday afternoon.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.
BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

McVICKER ACCOUNT. The final account of the special administrator, D. C. McVickar, in the estate of the late Mrs. Harriet McVickar, who died at the Hotel Maryland, Pasadena, last year, was settled yesterday by Judge Wilbur.

The court allowed $75 for the fees of the special administrator and similar amount for attorneys' fees. In the report filed, all the facts in connection with taking over the estate of the deceased in order to save them from Dr. Zeigler, the personal attendant and friend of Mrs. McVickar, were set out.

On the witness stand Mr. McGarvin stated that all the uneasiness displayed at the time was wholly unnecessary, but a great stir was developed about nothing. No new facts were developed.

Mr. McGarvin will now act as administrator of the estate with the will annexed. The only property of great value belonging to the deceased in the State is the old-fashioned jewelry appraised at $1037, but of an actual value much in excess of that sum.

mento, who was matched to fight "Kid" Williams in this city the 20th inst., has "cold feet." Hart sent a letter yesterday to the Athletic Association requesting him to cancel his engagement with Williams, owing to the illness of relatives.

Burke, at once communicated with "Dutch" Thurston, offering him a $7500 fight with Williams. Thurston accepted, and will take Hart's place. The contest has been postponed until the 25th inst. The match will be at 148 pounds.

A letter was received by Burke from the Montana Kid, who is in Los Angeles, asking for a match with Williams. Burke is contemplating using the "Kid" in a preliminary to the Williams-Thurston fight on the 25th inst.

WHITEWASH FOR LOOLOOS.

SWASHES SKIN LOCALS CLEAN IN CLOSE GAME.

Pitchers are Very Scarce With Their Swats and Fielders Have an Easy Time Doing Little—Only One Looleo Reaches Third Base—Toren Loses in First Inning.

Seattle 1, Los Angeles 0.

Speaking about batting, the fellows out at the Chutes groans yesterday had about as much pressure on their sticks as the gas company has on their ninety cent gas.

Like the stuff in the mains it was all there when you first commenced and there was a good deal of it all the time everybody was trying to cook up some runs. As a matter of fact we had to give it up as a bad job at the end and the Swashes went home with the satisfaction of getting the first shut-out of the season against the Looleos.

Skel Roach was the cause of all of it. Some of the fans declare that at times Skel is almost human in some of his work.

While he might not be the original tightwad, from whom so many prominent citizens got the habit, Toren was about as good an imitation as one would care to wear to the theater. Roach gave us four dirty hits and Toren let the Swashes have but three while neither one hurt himself with strike-outs each was there with the congestiveness. For this reason the locals got to third base but once and the Swashes hit four times, scoring their single run from one of these trips.

The game was good one in the fielding line but there were no particularly bright stunts because hits and long flies were too scarce for circus catches. It was generally a case of bounce them to the infield and bring to first base and the fact that there were but twenty-seven men to bat on each side shows how easy the game must have been to all concerned.

The only run was made in about two minutes of the first inning for the Swashes. Kane drew a pass from Toren, stole second base, went to third on a wild pitch and then after Ross Toren made a fine backward running catch of Hout's fly to left field, Miller came along and stung a single to center that scored Kane. No one thought much of this dinky run at first but along about the eighth inning it looked big as a meat ball at the end of the game.

As showing what the pitching really was it is stated that in the eighth half innings the batsmen went out on two-three in eleven of these. There was some roaring at Umpire Perrine over decisions but he cared no more for the rude remarks than umpires generally do.

PARADISE, Office of the Times,
No. 1000 Broadway, April 14.—
A fire which started away from the door of B. R. Bruley's garage at 1000 Broadway, and spread westward, caused the destruction of three automobiles belonging to Adolphus Busch of St. Louis.
The fire started at the door of the garage, where a match was left on the floor.

At the time of the fire, the garage was occupied by three automobiles, two of which were damaged. The fire spread rapidly and caused the destruction of the three automobiles.

MASS MEETING FOR HOSTELRY
AT LONG BEACH.

Jackies Left Behind by Departing
Warships—Friends Pastor to Stay
Another Year—Boat Agents Sore
Because Fighting Vessels Didn't Yield Greater Harvest.

LONG BEACH, April 14.—"Pondak
by the Sea," the prospective big proof hotel on the bluff at the foot of American avenue, the southern terminus of the Pacific boulevard between Los Angeles and Long Beach, received an added impetus at a mass meeting of citizens held this afternoon at the City Hall. W. W. Lowe was elected chairman and George T. Martin secretary.

The purpose of the meeting was explained as being to show outside capital that "Long Beach is the city that does things." The hotel is bonded at $400,000, with a stock issue of $200,000.
Of this amount, $200,000 has been subscribed, but is not payable until Long Beach subscribes $100,000 to show
the city's sympathy with the project.

Short talks were made by S. Townsend, H. P. Barbour, Mrs. Adelaide Tischer, A. S. Gates, F. A. Parker,
Mrs. Jennie Reeves, W. L. Porterfield and C. R. Dray, all bringing out the idea that the hotel is a necessity for the future prosperity of the city, and that it is to support it at this stage would give the city a very pronounced black eye.

Secretary Martin said that ground will be broken in the days of July and August. The first three stories of the structure completed. At the close of the meeting, about twenty-five of the leading citizens gave their names in for subscriptions and Chairman Lowe will name a committee to handle the subscription list to be circulated in the city.

BOAT AGENTS SAD.
The visit of the warships is over. The Chicago and Bennington weighed anchor at 6:30 this morning and steamed out for Santa Barbara. Just as the ships got fairly under way, two weary Jackies landed from a Pacific Electric car and stood sadly on the bluff for a moment, watching them go.

At the regular meeting of the Friends congregation, Rev. Lindley
Wells was invited to remain another year. The church has greatly prospered under his pastorate.

President J. H. New of the First National Bank, whose serious indisposition caused his friends grave apprehension, has so far recovered that he is able to leave his bed.

Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, who is the guest of Dr. Cuthbert and family, will lecture Monday night under the auspices of the "New Zealand, a Government of Divine Justice."

HOLLYWOOD.
DEATH OF FRANK GERLING.
HOLLYWOOD, April 14.—Frank Gerling, a retired business man about 70 years of age, died suddenly at his residence yesterday of Bright's disease. He was up at his usual hour, ate a hearty breakfast, was taken with convulsions and died in less than an hour.

Mr. Gerling was a Mason and a man of means. He leaves a married son and daughter in Pomona, a wife and two step-children here. He was married to Mrs. Reynolds of Los Angeles last summer. They moved into their beautiful new home six weeks ago.
The funeral will be held in Pomona
at 2 p.m. Sunday.

ABOUT GAS.
A committee of the Board of Trade has issued a circular statement to the members of the board and to citizens of the town saying that the Los Angeles Gas Company proposes to serve gas in this city at the Los Angeles rate. The statement reviews the prospect of installing an independent plant in Hollywood and virtually recommends indorsing such an independent plant.

OCEAN PARK.
TIDINGS OF BUILDERS.
OCEAN PARK, April 14.—Architects
have prepared plans for a three-story brick building to be erected on Trolley and Windward avenues, Venice, for C. J. Wilson. Philip Dennis is also arranging to build a lake structure on the adjoining lot. E. W. Smith will erect one of two stories on Ocean Front at the corner of Zephyr avenue. The George Jones residence on Strand is to be of nine rooms and the one of G. A.
Lounsbury on Fraser avenue will have eight rooms.

The new Decatur hotel in the Bre-den block is furnished and ready for dedication. This new three-story brick structure adjoins the bath-house and the first business house to invade Navy street or Ocean Front in that vicinity.

The sale of two lots on Marine street
to George Jones is announced today.
The stated price is $150 per front foot.
Six months ago lots on this street
could be had for $20 per foot.

SAN DIMAS.
JAPS LEAVE CREDITORS PLENTY.
SAN DIMAS, April 14.—The disappearance of three of the leaders of Japanese colonies of this vicinity has attracted a good deal of attention. It develops that the missing men have left numerous creditors.

A Japanese Club was started here a year ago. The head of the club was a Jap named Kobayashi. Under him were about forty Japanese laborers. At North Pomona was another Japanese camp, or club as they term it, under the management of S. Katoh. The two men had no dealings with each other and pretended to be enemies. It is considered significant that both of them absconded on Saturday night last,
and that both have left creditors.

It is a matter of considerable surprise that these men were able to obtain so much credit. Kobayashi owned a $500 grocery bill to the San Dimas
Cooperative Association at the time that institution closed its doors. A few days ago a sheriff's officer arrived from Los Angeles with a claim of $210
and all he could find to attach was a bill of $25.

The Pomona merchants have been badly treated by S. Katoh. The public generally has more confidence in this man, but there was more method in his departure than there was in Kobayashi's. Katoh went to George Ogle, the City Marshal of Pomona, and

FRANKLIN

Franklin motor-cars have been more thoroughly tested than any other cars in the world.
What other stock car has been in so many races and come out with such flying colors;
has borne itself so well in endurance and hill-climbing contests; has cut the record from New York to San Francisco in half; but, above all, has proved itself reliable in the hottest, as well as the coldest days of the year?

The Franklin has done all of this and the reason is its

Four-cylinder Air-cooled Motors

and splendid mechanical engineering.
The Franklin is a H. P. Light Touring Car is the equal of many an 18 to 20 H. P. Touring-car and costs a great deal less to maintain.

Headache and Backache Cured. "About a year ago,"
writes Mattie Allen, 1123 Broadway, Augusta, Ga., "I suffered continually with sick headache and backache and my periods would last twelve to fifteen days. At last, on the advice of a friend, I tried Cardui, and after using three bottles my pains disappeared. I now feel like a new woman, and am entirely cured."
